On March 3, 2003, this defendant was released upon terms pretrial by Magistrate Judge Gregory G. Hollows. Defendant was eventually tried upon charges, convicted and served his sentence. Defendant was placed upon supervised release in May of 2005 where he remains at present.

Defendant now desires the return of his passport from the United States District Court, the passport having been surrendered as a term of the defendant's pretrial release.

Defendant's supervised release terms do not require the surrender of his passport, and his supervising probation officer does not oppose the return of the passport.

Thus, it is hereby requested that the passport be returned to the 1 defendant.

2 DATED: September 22, 2005.

Respectfully submitted,
